

TSAOG Orthopaedics & Spine Hosts National Event to Advance Shoulder and Elbow Health

Sold-out San Antonio event spotlighted innovations in upper extremity care during National Shoulder & Elbow Week 2025

SAN ANTONIO, TX, UNITED STATES, June 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In May 2025, TSAOG Orthopaedics & Spine served as one of only eight official host sites nationwide for National Shoulder & Elbow Week, a public awareness initiative led by the American Shoulder and Elbow Surgeons \(ASES\) Foundation. The event highlighted advances in diagnosing and treating shoulder and elbow conditions.

The San Antonio gathering brought together patients, healthcare providers, and community leaders to focus on conditions that impact daily function, from rotator cuff tears and frozen shoulders to total shoulder and elbow replacements. Attendees gained insight into surgical and non-surgical treatments and innovations in rehabilitation and joint preservation.

With access to advanced imaging tools and a team of specialists, TSAOG's Shoulder & Elbow Institute evaluates and treats a full range of conditions, including tendon injuries, arthritis, fractures, nerve compression, and traumatic injuries. The institute's integrated care model includes diagnosis, evaluation, and physical therapy to support each patient's recovery and long-term mobility.

The ASES Foundation's annual National Shoulder and Elbow Week aims to elevate public understanding of upper extremity health and promote research and education in the field. TSAOG's participation reflects a continued commitment to improving outcomes for patients
