

Global Wine Pursuit Launches Curated European Wine Tours Led by Spanish-American Founder Jacquelyn García Vadnais

Jacquelyn García Vadnais Bridges Her USA Roots and European Base to Provide Unforgettable Small-Group Wine Journeys

SALAMANCA, CASTILLA Y LEÓN, SPAIN, June 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global Wine Pursuit, a boutique tour operator offering curated food and wine journeys across Europe's most iconic and hidden winemaking regions, proudly announces its official launch under the direction of founder Jacquelyn García Vadnais, a Spanish-American entrepreneur with a WSET Level 2 in Wines from the Napa Valley Wine Academy who was born in the USA and now divides her year between Florida, United States and Córdoba & Salamanca, Spain.

Jacquelyn's rich, bicultural background along with travels to 60+ countries and fluency in 4 languages profoundly shapes the soul of Global Wine Pursuit. Born in the USA to a Spanish-American family and currently living in the heart of Spain, she seamlessly merges her North American roots with her European lifestyle — offering travelers a unique blend of authenticity, insider knowledge, and warm, personalized service.

Through small-group journeys led by industry experts and sommeliers, Global Wine Pursuit guides sophisticated travelers directly into the world's greatest vineyards — from the Douro Valley and Ribera del Duero in Spain to Piedmont, and more. Each tour merges education, indulgence, and exploration, reflecting Jacquelyn's deep understanding of both the European winemaking traditions and the preferences of a North American clientele.

"It's a privilege to connect my two worlds — the USA, where I was born, and Spain, where I live —
