

MyCommunity.Today Introduces AI-Powered Platform for Local Business Discovery and Neighborhood Connectivity

SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES, June 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MyCommunity.Today, Inc., a California-based technology company, has launched a powerful AI-powered platform designed to help local residents and businesses stay connected through one comprehensive digital experience. The new platform offers community members a way to discover local businesses, events, and services while helping small businesses grow through innovative, cost-effective digital tools.

MyCommunity.Today provides a community centric, interactive social media & E-Commerce platform, specifically designed to allow local businesses to engage and promote their products and services within their local communities using MyCommunity.Today mobile and web app.

Designed to streamline how people interact with their neighborhood, MyCommunity.Today combines e-commerce, video content, local directories, community calendars, and social media into a single mobile and web app. The platform provides both convenience for consumers and marketing support for small businesses.

Our mission is to provide local businesses with free mobile and web app solutions that meet modern consumer expectations."

Bridging Communities Through AI and Innovation
MyCommunity.Today allows users to:

1. Discover and support local businesses

2. Access exclusive deals and coupons
3. Explore events, services, and community updates
4. Watch local video content
5. Book services and buy products—directly in the app

Meanwhile, local business owners benefit from the platform's Mobile App as a Service (MAAS) offering, which includes:

1. Free custom-branded mobile & web apps

2. E-commerce and video integration
3. Couponing, booking tools, and push notifications
4. Built-in SEO, social media tools, and digital marketing support

“Our MAAS tool has completely transformed how we market our business,” said a representative from Nikki Fine Jewelers. “It helped us build a branded app, improve SEO, and reach more local customers.”

Supporting Small Businesses with Smart Digital Tools

In addition to MAAS,

MyCommunity.Today offers:

1. SEO services for local visibility
2. Social media management and content creation
3. Email and SMS marketing automation
4. Paid advertising support across major platforms

“It’s everything your business needs—without the cost of hiring a full digital team,” added Dr. Agahi.

A New Model for Local Living

What sets MyCommunity.Today apart is its "appless app" feature—users can access merchant apps within the platform without downloading anything extra. With unified logins and secure payments, the experience is seamless for both customers and businesses.

MyCommunity.Today is already helping over 70,000 local businesses amplify their reach, connect with nearby customers, and compete in a digital-first economy.
