"On behalf of THE BOARDROOM magazine in partnership with Forbes Travel Guide, we'd like to congratulate Regatta Bay Golf & Yacht Club for earning the Distinguished Golf Destination ICONIC status," said John Fornaro, Publisher of THE BOARDROOM magazine, "Special recognition also goes out to Michael Giammaresi, General Manager, as well as the facility's department heads, and entire staff for their efforts in providing an exceptional golf experience.

Iconic status is achieved by providing a private club-level experience, featuring VIP amenities, 24/7 concierge service, and a renowned culinary team with an extensive wine selection. A world-class golf course, designed by a top architect and meticulously maintained, along with state-of-the-art golf carts, a spacious pro shop, and a modern clubhouse. A leadership team with superior training and experience is also essential to achieving this designation.

"We are honored to be recognized by THE BOARDROOM magazine and Forbes Travel Guide," said Mike Giammaresi, General Manager at Regatta Bay Golf & Yacht Club. "This achievement reflects our dedication to providing world-class facilities, exceptional service, and unforgettable moments on the course for our members and guests."

With a championship-level golf course designed by the acclaimed Robert C. Walker, Regatta Bay continues to uphold its reputation as a premier destination for luxury golf. The club's commitment to superior hospitality and a pristine course makes it stand out among elite golf clubs worldwide.
