

CLEAR THE CLUTTER BEFORE THE STORM: JUNK.COM OFFERS HURRICANE PREP TIPS TO HELP PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY

DALLAS, TX, UNITED STATES, June 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With hurricane season in full swing, Junk.com urges homeowners to take a critical—and often overlooked—step in storm preparation: clearing out the clutter. As part of its hurricane preparation tips, the company emphasizes the importance of removing unsecured junk like old patio furniture, broken fencing, and construction debris, which can become dangerous projectiles in high winds and turn minor messes into major threats.

“Every year we see the damage that storm season brings, and too often it starts with items that should have been removed months ago,” said Nicole Turturici, CEO of Junk.com. “Clutter around your home isn’t just unsightly—it can actually cause physical harm to your property, your neighbors, and emergency personnel if not properly disposed of before a storm hits.”

As storm threats increase across the Southeast and coastal regions, Junk.com is stepping in with a checklist of hurricane junk removal tips that could help homeowners minimize damage and protect their families.

5 Hurricane Junk Removal Tips That Could Save Your Home

1. Clear Out the Yard

Remove damaged or unused patio furniture, pots, toys, and grills. These items can be lifted by winds and crash through windows or vehicles.

2. Ditch the Debris

Leftover lumber, fencing, or roofing materials from home projects? Don’t wait—remove them before they become airborne hazards.

3. Declutter Driveways and Walkways

Create safe access for emergency personnel by removing excess storage bins, broken tools, and loose items from around your home’s perimeter.

4. Make Room for Emergency Gear

Clear space in garages and sheds to store hurricane supplies like sandbags, generators, and

Junk Removal Tips from Junk.com

Hurricane season has begun! This season spans from June to November. Any category of hurricane can have sustained wind speeds of between 74 to 95 miles per hour and can cause some serious damage to homes, especially if there is unsecured junk lying around.

“Every year we see the damage that storm season brings, and too often it starts with items that should have been removed months ago,” said Nicole Turturici, CEO of Junk.com.

Here is a checklist of Hurricane Junk Removal Tips to help homeowners minimize damage and protect their families.

- Declutter Driveways & Walkways
By assuring your driveways, walkways, and your home’s perimeter are free of clutter, you’re creating safe access to your home for emergency personnel.
- Make Room for Emergency Gear
Clear junk from spaces like garages and sheds to make room for emergency gear like sandbags, generators, and water.
- Clear Out the Yard
Remove damaged or unused patio furniture, pots, toys, and grills. These items can be lifted by winds and crash through windows or vehicles.
- Ditch the Debris
Clear junk from spaces like garages and sheds to make room for emergency gear like sandbags, generators, and water.
- Think Ahead for Pre-Storm Cleanup
Booking a junk removal early helps plan for the mess that a hurricane will leave behind. Junk.com same day appointments make pre-storm junk removal quick and hassle free.

Protect Your Property During Hurricane Season!

Staying one step ahead of the storm can help homeowners minimize damage to their property and protect their families.

“A little cleanup now can prevent a lot of cleanup later,” said Turturici. “We’re proud to support communities during hurricane season, even before the storm comes.”

Junk.com offers fast and affordable junk removal services that can help assortment your property before the hurricanes come rolling in. Book now to get a team out to appraise your junk removal job as soon as today.

water.

5. Think Ahead for Pre-Storm Cleanup

Book junk removal now to beat the rush before a storm hits. Junk.com offers same-day appointments and no-contact service for added peace of mind.

With fast, professional junk removal services and a commitment to eco-friendly disposal, Junk.com is prepared to help homeowners stormproof their properties before it's too late.

"We're proud to support communities during hurricane season—not just after the storm, but before it," added Turturici. "A little cleanup now can prevent a lot of cleanup later."

About Junk.com:

With 19 locations nationwide, Junk.com offers efficient, eco-friendly junk removal for residential and commercial clients. Known for fast, friendly service and a commitment to sustainability, Junk.com makes it easy to clear clutter — whether you're moving, downsizing, or simply reclaiming your space. Learn more at www.junk.com.

Hillary Jane Reynolds

Director of PR

+1 9548151186

email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/823082670>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.