▣ Built for Speed and Easy Access

The upgraded website loads significantly faster and is fully optimized for mobile and desktop use. Visitors can navigate the site more efficiently to find vital information, connect with local offices, or submit a request for legal help—reducing barriers for people in urgent need of assistance.

▣ Online Application Streamlines Legal Help

The new website connects users directly to CJLS' online application, allowing eligible residents to securely apply for legal services anytime, from anywhere. With clear instructions and a user-friendly interface, the online application allows users to get screened for eligibility and start an intake, making it easier and faster to access the legal help they need.

□ Educational Blog and Media Center Empower Residents

As part of its mission to promote equal access to justice, CJLS has expanded its Media Center to include a growing collection of blog articles and explainer videos, available in English, Spanish, and Mandarin. These resources cover a wide range of civil legal issues—such as eviction defense, domestic violence protection, access to public benefits, family law, and more.

The CJLS Blog features timely, easy-to-understand content to help residents:

- Understand their legal rights
- Navigate complex legal processes
- Prepare for housing court, benefit appeals, or protective orders

Whether you are facing a legal crisis or just want to be informed, the Media Center is an essential tool for education and empowerment.

□□ Committed to Community, Dedicated to Justice

For more than 75 years, CJLS has delivered free, high quality, civil legal services to those who need it most. With this new digital upgrade, the organization reaffirms its commitment to making legal help accessible to all—especially people who face economic, linguistic, or mobility challenges.

CJLS has local offices in New Brunswick, Perth Amboy, Elizabeth, Trenton, and Hamilton, ensuring both in-person and online access to legal support throughout Central New Jersey.

□ Contact Information & How to Apply

If you are a low-income resident in need of legal assistance, you can apply online or contact your local CJLS office:
