“The combination of ProCure’s best-in-class pricing model for home infusion and specialty pharmacy group purchasing and SDS Rx’s delivery and logistics expertise offers a unique opportunity for ProCure members to drive down costs while improving the overall quality of their product distribution,” said Joe Franjione, Senior Director, Client Programs, CarepathRx. “We are proud to bring further cost control and reliability to our member network.”

While ProCure offers more than 1,000 home infusion products from the nation’s leading medical vendors, SDS Rx provides an often-overlooked aspect to building a successful pharmacy business: professional delivery management, including a customer portal for organized order entry, real-time delivery tracking, and dedicated medical couriers.

“We’re excited about our partnership with ProCure and the opportunity to provide delivery solutions powered by advanced technology, proven processes, and a seamless nationwide network,” said David Emison, President, SDS Rx. “Our logistics expertise delivers the consistency, control, and visibility that are critical to patient care. This partnership allows us to help more organizations simplify the complexity of growing their home infusion and specialty pharmacy
