

Xello Partners with Beable Education to Deliver Integrated Literacy and CCR Solutions for K-12 Students

Bridging the Gap Between Literacy and Career Exploration, Xello and Beable Deliver a Seamless, AI-Powered Experience for K-12 Students and Educators

LAKEWOOD, NJ, UNITED STATES, June 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Xello, the leading K-12 college and career readiness program, and Beable Education, the pioneering Life-Ready Literacy platform, are excited to announce a new strategic partnership aimed at transforming how students prepare for lifelong success. By integrating Beable's individualized and personalized literacy platform with Xello's full K-12 CCR solutions, the partnership offers all students opportunities to connect literacy mastery directly to career exploration and personal growth.

Beable reaches every student at their reading level, matched to their interests. Together with Xello's college and career readiness program, we will close the opportunity gap.”

Saki Dodelson, CEO of Beable

Beable helps students accelerate their literacy skills by delivering personalized content that matches their reading level, while also tying in career paths and personal interests – the “why” that makes reading matter. At the same time, Xello guides students from K-12 in discovering who they are, building key skills, and planning for the future. Together, these two platforms give educators and families a smooth, all-in-one solution that supports both strong academics and real-world readiness.

“We're really excited to be partnering with Beable.” said Matt McQuillen, CEO of Xello. “This collaboration enhances our platform with an invaluable layer of literacy support, helping students not only plan for their futures but also build the essential skills to succeed. By integrating Beable's literacy expertise, we're expanding our ability to provide personalized learning experiences that meet the diverse needs of all students, empowering them to thrive both academically and in their future careers.”

“We are delighted with our partnership with Xello,” said Saki Dodelson, CEO of Beable. “It enables us to engage all students and put them on the path to gainful employment. Beable reaches every student at their reading level, matched to their interests. Together with Xello’s college and career readiness program, we will close the opportunity gap. Xello is well known for the quality and efficacy of their solutions, and we are proud to partner with them.”

The partnership will roll out integrated features and collaborative initiatives in the coming months, designed to foster measurable growth in literacy and career readiness, while engaging students, counselors, and teachers in developing skills that provide all students with a pathway to a bright future.
