"Too many families are suffering in silence. The Thrive Tour is our bold declaration that we see you, we hear you, and we are building a village to protect you," said Gabrielle Albert, Executive Director, 4Kira4Moms. "This is more than an event—it's a movement."

Event Highlights Include:

- Press Conference & Panel (3:30 PM–4:45 PM): Featuring Rev. Dr. Que English, Charles Johnson (Founder of 4Kira4Moms), OB/GYNs, doulas, and mental health specialists.
- 4Kira4Dads Dads Den "Locker Room" (4:45 PM–6:15 PM): A powerful father-focused space offering tools, resources, and conversations for men showing up for their families.
- The Village Experience (4:45 PM – 6:00 PM): Resource booths, baby bag giveaways, boxed meals, cooking demos, and kids' activities.
- 4Kira4Moms Move for Moms: Kira's Birthday Dance Party (6:15 PM–8:00 PM): An energetic close to the day celebrating Kira Johnson's legacy and the lives of all Black mothers sponsored by Strength of Nature-African Pride.

- DJ & Line Dancing
- Giveaways and Food
- Wellness activations

The Thrive Tour aims to reach communities most impacted by maternal health disparities, creating a space where families can gather, access resources, and leave inspired and better equipped.
