

Theme Park Attraction MONSTER HUNTER THE FIELD Introduces Nergigante to Training Quest

The immersive attraction at anime park Nijigen no Mori introduces its fourth large monster on June 20, alongside new themed merch and food

AWAJI CITY, HYOGO PREFECTURE, JAPAN, June 18, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Anime theme park Nijigen no Mori, located within Hyogo Prefectural Awaji Island Park, has announced the arrival of the Elder Dragon "Nergigante" from the Monster Hunter video game series to its limited-time attraction "MONSTER HUNTER THE FIELD in Nijigen no Mori", beginning Friday, June 20, 2025.

In this immersive attraction, guests assume the role of novice hunters arriving at the "Awaji Assembly Hall" to undergo training quests and hone their skills. The quests consist of two stages: "Field Research" and "Large Monster Suppression". In the suppression stage, participants face off against large monsters onscreen while equipped with action controllers and tracking devices. They must use their full body to control weapons, evade attacks, and aim for successful subjugation. Each participant receives a personal IC-tagged "Hunter ID", which tracks progress and stores data across visits. As hunters complete quests, their Hunter Rank increases, unlocking access to more powerful monsters. Challenging Nergigante requires a Hunter Rank of 3 or higher.

Multi Ring (Nergigante) – ¥2,178 (tax included)

To commemorate Nergigante's arrival, a new line of original, limited edition merchandise and collaboration food items will launch alongside the update. Whether a seasoned veteran or first-time participant, Monster Hunter fans are invited to face the might of the fearsome Elder Dragon at Nijigen no Mori this summer.
