seasoned legal professionals Bruce A. Montoya and Elizabeth K. Salinas-Van Orman in Colorado, and Jeffrey R. Finley in Arizona. The firm will provide ADR services in civil and commercial litigation across most industries including but not limited to healthcare, restaurants and hospitality, retail, professional services, and real estate.

Regarding the firm's new ADR and mediation services, Messner Reeves President, Jim Smith commented, “Our ADR team comprises prominent trial lawyers who are trusted and respected by their colleagues. We are pleased to support their work in ADR and mediation as neutrals focused on resolving commercial and civil disputes effectively.”

Jeffrey R. Finley, who joins Messner Reeves as a partner in the firm's Phoenix office, brings over two decades of experience in litigation and will offer additional services in ADR and mediation. He is recognized for his practical, solutions-oriented approach in commercial litigation, construction law, and complex tort cases. In addition to his courtroom expertise, Finley is a trained mediator and arbitrator, having successfully resolved a wide range of disputes both privately and through court-appointed roles. At Messner Reeves, Finley will have a blended practice with trial and ADR services.

The firm’s model will offer a flexible, personalized experience designed to reduce the time, expense, and uncertainty of courtroom proceedings, while still preserving their option to litigate when necessary. Clients will benefit from the guidance of experienced practitioners who understand both the nuances of dispute resolution and the industries in which their clients operate.

Mediator Jeffrey R. Finley shared, “I am pleased to expand my practice in ADR and mediation as I join Messner Reeves. I have participated in numerous mediations as an advocate, and I look forward to utilizing my skills and insight to facilitate resolution between disputing parties as a neutral.”

Celebrating its 30th anniversary this year, Messner Reeves continues to grow with a forward-thinking approach to client service. The addition of ADR and mediation services reflects the firm’s ongoing commitment to delivering innovative legal solutions rooted in business insight and legal excellence.
