“We are incredibly honored to partner with the team at the Four Seasons Private Residences Las Vegas to bring ITALKRAFT's world-class production to the future residents of this project,” said Raul Gutierrez, co-founder of ITALKRAFT. “The level of quality, precision, and care that the Four Seasons Private Residence team has put into the planning and design of this project will make this development the jewel of Las Vegas. We are truly grateful for the opportunity to work alongside the men and women of Two Roads, Azure, and Luxus to build such elegantly appointed residences that meet the Four Seasons standard of excellence.”

ITALKRAFT will be developing and manufacturing the custom cabinetry and millwork for the Four Seasons Private Residences Las Vegas using their turnkey, vertically integrated approach. The project includes kitchens, bathroom vanities, closets, bars, and laundry rooms in each private residence. Exclusive to the development is ITALKRAFT's creation of a bespoke French White Oak veneer that elevates the custom cabinetry and millwork throughout each residence.

"Branded residences like the Four Seasons Private Residences Las Vegas are built to create a unique, differentiated, and truly elevated experience that is not found anywhere else," said Gutierrez. "It is a joy to work with firms like Wimberly who push the boundaries of design. Our job is to make whatever they envision a reality while delivering on-time and on-budget for the development and construction teams."

The first high-rise residences in Henderson are designed by architectural visionaries Wimberly Allison Tong & Goo (WATG). Thoughtfully designed features include semi-private elevators, private garages, and fully furnished interiors curated by Wimberly Interiors, who selected superior designer finishes and fixtures with a rich palette of options, including epicurean kitchens and spa-inspired bathrooms. Each residence offers customizable terraces equipped with outdoor kitchens, social gathering spaces and dining areas, enhancing the indoor-outdoor lifestyle for owners and their guests.

"ITALKRAFT has been a trusted partner in bringing our visions to life across all of Two Roads' blue-chip developments – from our successful Elysee Miami, a waterfront tower rising from the shores of Biscayne Bay in Miami, to The Ocean Club, Four Seasons Residences in The Bahamas, and now Four Seasons Private Residences Las Vegas,” said Brad Meltzer, Partner and President of Two Roads Development. “Their dedication and craftsmanship have made them an integral part of Two Roads’ iconic and forthcoming developments around the world.”

ITALKRAFT employs a unique approach to kitchen and bath design as they provide end-to-end service that handles all aspects of the process, from manufacturing, supplying, and installing their products. Their integrated manufacturing processes have been proven over 15 years to give discerning luxury developers the ability to bring any vision to life on-budget and on-time.
