With over 310,000 women expected to be diagnosed with breast cancer in the U.S. this year, the need for clear, reliable education is urgent. Learn Look Locate is listed as a trusted resource on CancerConnect and is featured in its monthly breast cancer newsletter reaching 30,000+ subscribers.

Together, they ensure patients receive the most important breakthroughs from one of the field's top oncologists—through a trusted survivor-led platform.

More Than Information—Navigation and Community

Through the Cancer First Calls page, Dr. Weaver offers step-by-step support to help patients understand their diagnosis and navigate early decisions. The Support Community provides a medically moderated space for connection, questions, and healing.

“When I was diagnosed, I didn’t know where to begin,” said Cynthia Jordan, Founder of Learn Look Locate. “This partnership ensures that patients get the trusted information and support they need, when they need it most.”

“Patients don’t need simplified stories—they need access to the right ones,” said Dr. Charles H. Weaver, Founder of CancerConnect and Medical Advisor to Learn Look Locate. “These updates reflect the science as it happens, helping patients stay informed and empowered alongside their care teams.”

“This is where research and real life intersect,” added Dr. Barry Rosen, Breast Surgical Oncologist and Senior Medical Advisor at Learn Look Locate. “Learn Look Locate continues to be a space where medical breakthroughs are not only shared, but also grounded in what patients are truly facing.”
