

ModusLink Corporation Announces New Facility in Shenzhen, China

ModusLink Corporation has expanded its China operations with a new facility in Shenzhen.

SMYRNA, TN, UNITED STATES, June 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- ModusLink

Corporation is proud to announce the opening of a new logistics and fulfilment facility in Shenzhen, China, further strengthening its presence in one of Asia's most critical supply chain hubs. This new site is strategically located to be able to service ModusLink's customers China for China consumption. It enables ModusLink to offer fulfilment services as well as returns and repairs for the domestic Chinese market.

This new facility in Shenzhen allows us to scale our services within the region while staying close to our existing operations and major transportation infrastructure”

Fawaz Khalil, CEO ModusLink Corporation

“ModusLink continues to invest in strategic locations that enhance our ability to support global customer needs with speed and efficiency,” said Fawaz Khalil, Chief Executive Officer at ModusLink. “This new facility in Shenzhen allows us to scale our services within the region while staying close to our existing operations and major transportation infrastructure.”

Located in LongGang District, the new site expands ModusLink's China footprint, which already includes facilities in Waigaoqiao, Chongqing, Kunshan, Futian, and other parts of Shenzhen. The facility spans over 16,000 square feet and offers a full range of supply chain services including inbound order processing, picking and handling, and outbound logistics.

The LongGang facility is strategically positioned less than an hour from ModusLink's Futian site, Shenzhen International Airport, and Yantian Port, and only two hours from Hong Kong International Airport, ensuring rapid and flexible regional connectivity.
