The Word of God is unchanging, but the world is constantly evolving. FaithAI helps modern believers connect these two realities in a meaningful and deeply personal way.”

Matt Angerer

and attention spans shrink, HolyJot, the new faith-based platform launching August 1st, introduces a powerful solution for believers to stay grounded: FaithAI. This intelligent spiritual companion is designed to help Christians interpret local, national, and global events through the timeless lens of Scripture.

"The Word of God is unchanging, but the world is constantly evolving," says HolyJot Co-Founder Matt Angerer. "FaithAI helps modern believers connect these two realities in a meaningful and deeply personal way."

FaithAI: Bringing Ancient Truth Into the Present

- Matches these issues with Biblical themes, verses, and stories
- Offers personalized reflection prompts and journaling questions
- Guides users in how to respond prayerfully and Biblically to modern problems

"We built HolyJot to empower discernment," Angerer explains. "Whether it's a hurricane, a cultural divide, political tension, or a tragedy, FaithAI helps believers reflect, pray, and journal through it using the Word."

When paired with FaithAI, users can:

- Receive Biblical reflections on classical themes
- Start global study groups to discuss timeless books
- Join forum discussions with other literature lovers
- Write essays exploring morality, faith, and human nature in the classics

"The attention span of today's culture has been whittled down by TikTok and YouTube Shorts," says Angerer. "But reading the classics—paired with the Bible—is a way to recover wisdom, patience, and spiritual depth."

HolyJot encourages users to spend more time reading, thinking, and reflecting—whether that's Scripture or Shakespeare.

Building a Culture of Thoughtful Faith

HolyJot isn't just an app; it's a movement to revive deep thinking and spiritual formation.

"We believe that by returning to ancient texts and engaging with them thoughtfully, believers can rise above the digital noise," says Angerer. "HolyJot is the antidote to endless scrolling."
