G. Alex Cudney: A Trusted Name in Manitoba’s Legal Community

Called to the bar in 1978, Alex Cudney has enjoyed a commendable career in Manitoba’s legal landscape for over 50 years. His expertise focuses on multiple areas including Wills and estates, civil litigation, corporate and commercial, real estate, personal injury, and family law. He has helped hundreds of clients navigate complex legal matters and achieve positive outcomes over the years. Even today, he continues to carry the same level of energy and dedication to his work that instilled a sense of trust in his clients’ hearts and made them turn to him whenever they face legal challenges.

Alex Cudney joined the dynamic team of McRoberts Law Office as a partner (presently an associate) in 1985. Since then, he has been a cornerstone of the firm’s success and continues to be a source of strength and reliability within the team and to the clients they serve.
