

FreedomCare Launches Medicaid In-Home Care and Personal Support Through Michigan's Home Help Program

FreedomCare now supports Michigan's Home Help Program, letting Medicaid members get in-home care from trusted family or friends.

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- FreedomCare, a national leader in in-home care services, is proud to announce the launch of its support for the Home Help Program in Michigan. This Medicaid-based initiative allows eligible individuals to receive personal care services from someone they know and trust—such as a family member or close friend.

Michigan's Home Help Program is part of the state's broader home care services network, offering support for daily living activities like bathing, dressing, mobility, and meal preparation. FreedomCare ensures families get started quickly by handling all the paperwork and providing caregiver training and support.

“Every Medicaid member in Michigan deserves care that’s delivered with compassion and dignity,” said Caitlin Griffin, Michigan Operation Director, at FreedomCare. “Whether you’re in Detroit, Grand Rapids, or anywhere in between, our in-home care services help keep families together while making sure caregivers are paid and supported.”
