We make sure that our "veterans can access the jobs and opportunities that will help them enjoy the same American Dream they defended. I'm grateful for the Albany Job Fair's ongoing commitment"

Senator Jacob Ashby

"I'm honored to support the Albany Job Fair and its powerful commitment to helping our veterans secure good-paying jobs that allow them to apply their valuable skills and dedication to roles that serve our communities. The men and women who've worn our nation's uniform have served with honor and courage, and we owe it to them to ensure they have access to meaningful career opportunities as they reenter civilian life. By giving veterans early access to this event, the Albany Job Fair is making a clear and powerful statement: your service is appreciated, and your future is important. Connecting veterans with employers who understand their value is one of the smartest investments we can make in both our workforce and our community," Congressman Paul D. Tonko (NY-20).

Continuing to support area Veterans, the Albany Job Fair will open one hour early from 1pm-2pm to allow veterans time with the recruiters before the general public hours from 2pm-6pm. For the first time, PTSD dogs will be on hand courtesy of the DOL Veterans Services Office to help ease the tensions that veterans may feel coming into the venue.

"I would like to commend the Albany Job Fair for once again dedicating the first hour of the event exclusively for Veterans. It's a simple but powerful way to show respect for those who have served and to make sure they have access to everything the fair has to offer. I also encourage job seekers from every background to attend. This event is a wonderful opportunity to connect with employers who are hiring right here in Albany County," said Albany County Executive Daniel P. McCoy.

The Albany Job Fair also features an online job fair, accessible on site 24/7 where job seekers can freely browse open positions across all hiring companies. The Albany Job Fair posts all recruiting companies with links to their online job listings and invites job seekers to start the application process right now.

"Our veterans will never get back the time they spent missing birthdays and anniversaries, first steps and first ball games. They gave that time to all of us. It's only right that we devote time to making sure they can access the jobs and opportunities that will help them enjoy the same American Dream they defended. I'm grateful for the Albany Job Fair's ongoing commitment to our veterans," said Senator Jacob Ashby.

What also sets The Albany Job Fair apart is its resume distribution program, designed to benefit all job seekers — whether they attend in person or not. Resumes can be submitted ahead of the event by emailing to resumes@albanyjobfair.com. The resumes are then gathered and distributed to every participating recruiter. Resumes may also be dropped off at registration on the day of the event for scanning and distribution to all recruiters.
