Landmark Hospitality Group, a Houston-based hospitality and marketing firm founded by entrepreneur Lucky Chopra, is making waves across Texas with its flagship brand, Hearsay Gastro Lounge. With seven thriving locations across Greater Houston and Galveston, including the newest in Beaumont—Landmark Hospitality is showing no signs of slowing down.

At the heart of the company's success is Lucky Chopra, a visionary founder whose passion for hospitality and preservation has helped redefine dining in historic spaces. Under Chopra's leadership, Landmark Hospitality Group has transformed forgotten landmarks into vibrant culinary destinations, each designed to honor the local history and character of its community.

The newest Hearsay location in Beaumont stands as a testament to this mission. Nestled in a restored historic building in Downtown Beaumont, it brings new life and energy to the city while honoring its deep-rooted past.

"We don't just open restaurants," said Chopra. "We tell stories. We bring history back to the table."

With plans underway to expand into Dallas and Waco, Landmark Hospitality Group remains committed to celebrating Texas's rich cultural tapestry. Each location is carefully selected for its historical significance, continuing the brand's legacy of blending elevated dining with architectural preservation.

What began as a single concept in Downtown Houston has grown into a state-spanning brand, thanks to Chopra's unique ability to pair bold business strategy with genuine community investment. His hands-on approach and eye for opportunity have earned him a reputation as one of the most forward-thinking figures in Texas hospitality today.
