

Invest in Kansas: Tuley's Platform to Rebuild Schools, Health, and Economy

Marty Tuley Announces Campaign for Governor of Kansas.

LAWRENCE, KS, UNITED STATES, June 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Marty Tuley, educator, parent, and lifelong Kansan, has officially announced a campaign for Governor of Kansas in the 2026 election.

Platform Priorities Include:

- Raise public school teacher pay to be among the top 25 states nationally
- Two healthy school meals a day for every Kansas public school student
- Eliminate cell phones during school hours in public schools
- Support legal cannabis with tax revenue invested in Kansas schools
- Oppose private schools receiving taxpayer funds or competing in public school athletics
- Rebuild rural economies by strengthening local schools and food systems
- Secure but accessible borders
- Address obesity as a statewide health crisis — prevention over endless treatment
- Prioritize Kansas-grown businesses through balanced taxation and supportive regulation
- Oppose tax cuts as a political tool; focus on solutions, not short-term giveaways
- Support wind and solar energy; reduce plastic use statewide
- Transition Kansas government to a paperless system
- Make voting easy and accessible, including electronic options
- Oppose transgender girls competing in girls' sports — fairness and safety matter
- Emphasize that prosperity requires investment—not austerity or cuts

"We have the geography, the work ethic, and the heart to lead the country again in education, agriculture, energy, and small business."
