

ProwessSoft and CurieTech AI Partner to Accelerate Migrations to MuleSoft with One-Click AI Migration Agent

The joint solution cuts time and effort for integration platform migrations to MuleSoft by 50%.

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Prowess Software Services, a global leader in enterprise integration solutions, is excited to announce a strategic partnership with CurieTech AI, a Silicon Valley-based innovator specializing in AI-powered coding agents for MuleSoft integrations.

This collaboration aims to revolutionize how businesses approach modernizing their legacy integration platforms to MuleSoft. By combining CurieTech AI's One-click AI Migration Agent, which automates every step of the process, with Prowess's deep system integration expertise, organizations can expect higher code quality while cutting time and effort by half.

Ajay Konda, Founder & CGO at Prowess Software Services, commented:

"At ProwessSoft, we believe in working smarter and faster — and always pushing the boundaries of what's possible for our clients. That's why we've partnered with CurieTech AI — to bring cutting-edge, AI-driven solutions into our migration and integration services. Together, we're making complex migrations simpler, faster, and more reliable — giving our clients the confidence to innovate and move forward with speed. This is a big leap in AI-powered integration."

Ashish Thusoo, Founder & CEO of CurieTech AI, stated:

"At CurieTech AI, we empower integration engineers and architects with AI agents fine-tuned for their day-to-day tasks—design, coding, testing, reviews, and documentation. With over 80% accuracy, these agents deliver up to 10x acceleration in development workflows. In partnership with Prowess, our platinum partner, we're bringing purpose-built solutions like the One-Click AI

Migration Agent to streamline MuleSoft migrations—cutting time and effort by over 50% and helping organizations modernize faster and with greater quality.”
