CHICAGO, IL, UNITED STATES, June 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Royal Cyber, in partnership

Agentic AI is reshaping enterprise decision-making,”
“We help organizations move beyond automation to systems that learn, adapt, and deliver intelligent, secure outcomes at scale.”

Mustafa Pesh

with Callibrity, expert.ai, and community partners AI Collective and Chicago AI Council, will host a dynamic executive event “Empowering the Future with Agentic AI: Real-World Impact Across Industries” on July 22, 2025, from 3:30 PM onwards at Microsoft’s Chicago Office (Aon Center) — part of the citywide TechChicago Week celebration.

Bringing together leaders in AI, healthcare, legal, education, and emerging tech, the event features an afternoon of panel discussions, real-world case studies, and live demonstrations of enterprise-grade Agentic AI. A networking happy hour will follow the formal agenda, offering a casual setting to meet Chicago’s AI innovators.

Confirmed speakers include industry voices from AbbVie, Exterro, DePaul University, Why of AI, expert.ai, Callibrity, Royal Cyber, and more, with keynote insights from Jordan Wilson (Everyday AI) and Alex Castrounis (Why of AI & Kellogg).

The half-day forum kicks off at 3:30 PM and will feature dynamic industry panels, real-world use cases, and a networking happy hour, bringing together thought leaders and technology executives across Education, Healthcare, Legal, Retail, and more.

Agenda topics

- Enterprise adoption of Agentic AI
- AI Ethics & Governance
- AI in Healthcare & Life Sciences
- AI for Legal Innovation
- Retail & Customer Experience AI
- Live multi-agent demos
