CORPUS CHRISTI, TX, UNITED STATES, June 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hilliard Law is proud to share the successful completion of a multi-phase community project that transformed an overgrown, neglected outdoor area into a revitalized space of rest and connection for the men of Rustic House at Corpus Christi Metro Ministries. What began with clearing thick overgrowth and repairing structural elements culminated in the creation of a welcoming new patio and gathering area, designed to offer peace, comfort, and dignity to its residents.

Over the past weekend, volunteers from Hilliard Law, including partners, attorneys, staff, and interns, dedicated themselves to revitalizing the outdoor space.

Carried out over several weeks, the project included clearing brush, rebuilding and painting handrails, installing pavers to form a patio, sealing the retaining wall, and adding a painted picnic table. The final phase took place this past Saturday, when the Hilliard Law team finished sealing and painting, while a second team prepared sack dinners, and Top Dawg Bros food truck served hot and fresh 'dawgs' with all the fixings for lunch.

A special moment of the day included a surprise visit from Del Hilliard and his Trojan baseball 10U teammates, who surprised everyone at lunchtime with ice-cold lemonade and cookies from their Coastal Bend Lemonade Day stand, adding a personal and heartfelt touch to the event.

The project was attended by members of the Hilliard family, whose deep-rooted commitment to serving the Corpus Christi community spans more than 40 years. Bob and Catherine Hilliard, owners and partners of Hilliard Law, joined the day's efforts, along with their son, attorney Alex Hilliard, his wife Brit, and their daughter Briar. Their youngest son, Del, along with his friends, contributed joyfully to the day's events. The family's presence was a meaningful reminder that at Hilliard Law, giving back isn't just a principle—it's a legacy.

"This space is more than a project—it's a reflection of our values," said Bob Hilliard, Founder of Hilliard Law. "To stand beside my family, colleagues, and interns and witness our shared commitment to service come to life was incredibly moving. We don't just say we're committed to our community—we live it."

Patty Clark, Executive Director of Metro Ministries, expressed her appreciation:

"The transformation of this space is a beautiful example of how collaboration and compassion can create lasting change. We speak often about dignity and the reciprocal sharing of God's love, and about serving our most vulnerable neighbors. We are so grateful to Hilliard Law—not just for the physical work, but for the care and respect they've shown to our residents."
