Dr. Martin Gross

Gross was chosen by an independent panel of past winners, top CEOs, and business leaders. Judges assessed candidates on long-term value creation, entrepreneurial spirit, purpose-driven commitment, and significant growth and impact.

"I am incredibly honored to receive the Entrepreneur Of The Year 2025 Heartland Award. This recognition reflects the dedication of our team and the innovative spirit that drives our mission to build sustainable wastewater treatment solutions. At Gross-Wen, we are proud to transform environmental challenges into opportunities for cleaner water, stronger communities, and a more resilient future," said Gross.

Gross-Wen Technologies, based in Slater, Iowa, provides sustainable wastewater treatment solutions for municipalities and industries. The company's Revolving Algal Biofilm (RAB) technology offers a low-energy, cost-effective approach to nutrient removal, contributing to cleaner waterways and stronger circular economies.

As a Heartland award winner, Gross is now eligible for consideration for the Entrepreneur Of The Year 2025 National Awards. The national award winners, including the Entrepreneur Of The Year National Overall Award winner, will be announced in November at the Strategic Growth Forum®, one of the nation's most prestigious gatherings of high-growth, market-leading companies. About Gross-Wen Technologies:

Gross-Wen Technologies is a climate and wastewater treatment technology company that uses algae instead of bacteria or chemicals to recover nitrogen and phosphorus from wastewater. During the treatment process, the algae consume CO₂, harmful greenhouse gases, from the atmosphere, making algae the most sustainable way to treat wastewater. The algae are later harvested to be used as slow-release fertilizer, in biofuels, or in other products. GWT's patented algae-based water treatment solution, called the revolving algal biofilm™ system (RAB™), is considered the top algae treatment system in the world. Learn more at algae.com.
