on its growing portfolio of women's health solutions, including LivRing®, the first and only FDA-cleared, over-the-counter intravaginal ring that provides continuous moisturizing and lubricating benefit for up to 7 days.

Dr. Singer brings more than 20 years of clinical and surgical experience with a focus on pelvic pain, sexual health, hormone therapy, and age management. She is the founder of Park City Gynecology, Park City Medesthetix, and Cenegenics Park City, and has cared for thousands of women managing the intimate effects of hormonal changes, vaginal dryness, and other health concerns that often go under-treated or unspoken.

“I've spent my career helping women feel confident, comfortable, and in control of their health,” said Dr. Stephanie Singer. “Joining the leadership team at J3 Bioscience feels like a natural extension of the work I've been doing for years, listening to women, understanding their needs, and finding solutions that truly improve their quality of life. I'm proud to support a company that is bringing thoughtful, evidence-based innovation to women's health.”

As Medical Director, Dr. Singer will contribute to clinical communications, medical education efforts, and strategic stakeholder engagement. She will also serve as an advisor on product innovation and medical positioning as J3 advances its long-term value creation strategy.
