Location: Meridian Boys & Girls Club

On Tuesday, June 24, the Meridian Boys & Girls Club & CBH Homes will host a special unveiling of “Glow & Grow,” a vibrant new heart being added to the Hearts Across the Valley Initiative, a community outreach launched by CBH Homes that is bringing people together to celebrates local artists, businesses and landmarks in our community.. The mural created by Boise-based artist Amandalynn Lovewell, is more than an artistic addition—it’s a tribute to the resilience and inner light of the children the Club serves each day.

“This place is more than childcare—it’s where kids are reminded that they belong, that they matter, and that joy is part of their story,” she shared. As a working mother, she has experienced firsthand the peace of mind that comes from knowing her daughter is safe, supported, and nurtured at the Boys & Girls Club. Amandalynn, a painter, sculptor, and digital artist known for her emotionally rich and deeply personal work,

Hearts ACROSS THE Valley

CBH Homes and Meridian Boys & Girls Club heart “Glow & Grow,” designed by local Idaho artist, Amandalynn Lovewell.

describes the mural as “a visual expression of gratitude.”

“Glow & Grow” reflects that spirit—of transformation, creativity, and belonging. Using soft layers of color and texture, Amandalynn channels the sparks of hope and courage found in every child. Her signature style—blending Renaissance-like reverence with a light Impressionistic touch—invites viewers to pause and reflect on the unseen strength of young hearts.

The Boys & Girls Clubs of Ada County serve nearly 4,500 youth each year across eight locations, offering mentorship, healthy meals, character-building activities, and a space to grow. As their mission states, the Clubs exist “to inspire and empower all young people—especially those who need us most—to reach their full potential as responsible, productive, and caring citizens.”
