Tonnino, long recognized for setting the standard in gourmet tuna, is taking shelf-stable seafood beyond the pantry and onto the center of the plate. At Booth #5743 at the Summer Fancy Food Show 2025, the brand will showcase its bold, elevated lineup of premium yellowfin and albacore tuna in jars and cans and wild-caught salmon in jars, offering a delicious, convenient alternative to traditional proteins.

The lineup includes high-protein, flavor-packed options designed to turn everyday meals into restaurant-worthy experiences, whether tossed into pasta, layered on toast, or served as a center-plate star.
