Lenny and Lucy's discovery about what truly matters in life speaks directly to the spiritual growth we hope to nurture in young audiences."

"As the demand for content that bridges entertainment with spiritual themes increases, "THE GREATEST THING EVER: A GARDEN CARTOON MOVIE" is another example of how BMG-Global is addressing that audience's need," said Hartman. "This movie encompasses all the components that family audiences enjoy and that I have become known for over the past couple of decades: adventure, spectacle, humor, working towards a goal, suspense – all fortified by foundational messages of family connection and positive values. I'm thrilled with the result, and I think families all around the world will be too."

The film's premise sends the lovable animal protagonists on an imaginative journey, considering various possibilities for what "The Greatest Thing Ever" might be—from hidden treasure and royal crowns to cosmic adventures and prehistoric wonders. As their quest unfolds, viewers are treated to breathtaking animated visuals and heartwarming moments that ultimately reveal the spiritual message at the heart of the story.

Created, executive produced, and directed by Hartman, the film features an impressive voice cast including James Arnold Taylor (The King of Kings, Star Wars: The Clone Wars), Cristina Milizia (The Casagrandes), Brian Stivale (Return), and renowned iHeart radio personality Delilah (host of the nationally syndicated radio program reaching millions of listeners nightly), with Katie Leigh (Muppet Babies) and Hillary Phillips (The Big Blue Book) rounding out the ensemble. The creative team includes Ramiro Olmos as Creative Director, Nick Kalmar and Stephen Picher as Co-Directors, with Producer Taylor Bradbury, p.g.a., alongside Executive Producer Julieann Hartman.
