"Console tables have become essential pieces for both residential and commercial spaces," said Mr. David Bergman, CEO of Butler Specialty Company. "Our expanded collection reflects our commitment to providing furniture that serves as the brightest spot in any room while meeting the diverse needs of our customers."

The new collection features multiple variations of the Cheshire Console Table, including models 3020482 (<https://www.butlerspecialty.net/butler-specialty-company-cheshire-console-table/3020482-871/iteminformation.aspx>) and 3020483 (<https://www.butlerspecialty.net/butler-specialty-company-cheshire-console-table/3020483-871/iteminformation.aspx>), both currently available in stock in the Chicago, Illinois area. The Amadeo Console Table (model 5914070 (<https://www.butlerspecialty.net/butler-specialty-company-amadeo-console-table/5914070-871/iteminformation.aspx>)) represents another addition to the company's growing inventory, designed to complement various interior design styles.

Butler Specialty currently offers 162 different console table options Living Room Console Tables, spanning multiple collections including Chatham, Chester, Crystal Clear, Danielle, Flagstaff, Heritage, Larina, Lark, Nora, and Vivienne. The tables are available in various materials including wood, marble, metal, glass, and stone, with style options ranging from Traditional/Formal to Modern/Contemporary, Mid-Century, Industrial, Transitional, and Rustic designs.

The company's product development approach focuses on bringing items to market monthly, allowing for responsiveness to current trends and customer feedback. Butler Specialty serves almost every distribution channel, from e-commerce to big box stores, to interior designers and the trade and hospitality sectors.

Butler Specialty's console tables feature diverse color families including beige, black, blue, brown, clear, gold, gray, green, multicolored, silver, white, and yellow options. The extensive range ensures compatibility with existing décor schemes while providing opportunities for design enhancement.

"Our ability to bring product to market quickly, monthly in fact, allows us to offer our customers products that can stand the test of time while staying current with design trends," Bergman explained. The company's approach includes working with customers from concept through production, offering what it describes as a "Made by Butler, designed by you" experience.

The company has years of product development experience and can help fulfill any development needs, working with customers from concept to sketch to production and drop-ship fulfillment.

The console table collection supports Butler Specialty's broader mission of serving businesses throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe. The company's distribution network reaches various market segments, providing furniture solutions for residential, commercial, and hospitality applications.

Butler Specialty's manufacturing process emphasizes quality craftsmanship and attention to detail. The company sources materials globally to ensure variety and quality in its product offerings. Each piece is designed to meet both functional requirements and aesthetic preferences of diverse customer bases.

The expanded console table collection reflects broader furniture industry trends toward versatile, space-efficient pieces. These tables serve multiple functions, from entryway storage to behind-sofa placement, media console use, and decorative display platforms.
