

IUX Celebrates Teamwork and Networking at the IA Premier League 2025

IUX excelled at the IA Premier League 2025, securing 2nd place and Best Goalkeeper Award, highlighting teamwork and boosting its presence in the industry.

LIMASSOL, VINCENT, CYPRUS, June 25, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- IUX is thrilled to have participated in the IA Premier League 2025, held on June 14th at Mainson Sport Club, Thu Duc City, Vietnam. The event wasn't just a football tournament; it was an opportunity to celebrate teamwork, strategy, and collaboration within the financial industry.

The IA Premier League provided a platform for teams from various sectors to engage in friendly competition and foster strong connections. Although the final match didn't result in a win for IUX, the true victory was found in the spirit of teamwork, sportsmanship, and the relationships formed during the event. It was a reminder that the goal of these events isn't just competition but the shared values of collaboration and growth.

Celebrating Success Beyond the Scoreboard

While winning the trophy is always the goal, the event underscored that lasting success comes from the connections built through collaboration and teamwork. IUX proudly finished in 2nd Place in the Football Tournament, and the company also received the Best Goalkeeper Award.

This prestigious honor was awarded to Nabil Hussein, IUX's Head of Key Accounts. The IA Premier League served as an excellent networking platform, allowing participants to engage with key people, share insights, and create meaningful relationships that will fuel future growth.

"The IA Premier League was about showing up as a team, representing our values, and building real connections across the industry. I'm proud of how IUX competed, collaborated, and connected. This is exactly the kind of energy we want to carry into our commercial partnerships." — Alex Delarue, Regional Commercial Director, IUX
