

Shearing by Xin Se Wins Gold in A' Art Supply Awards

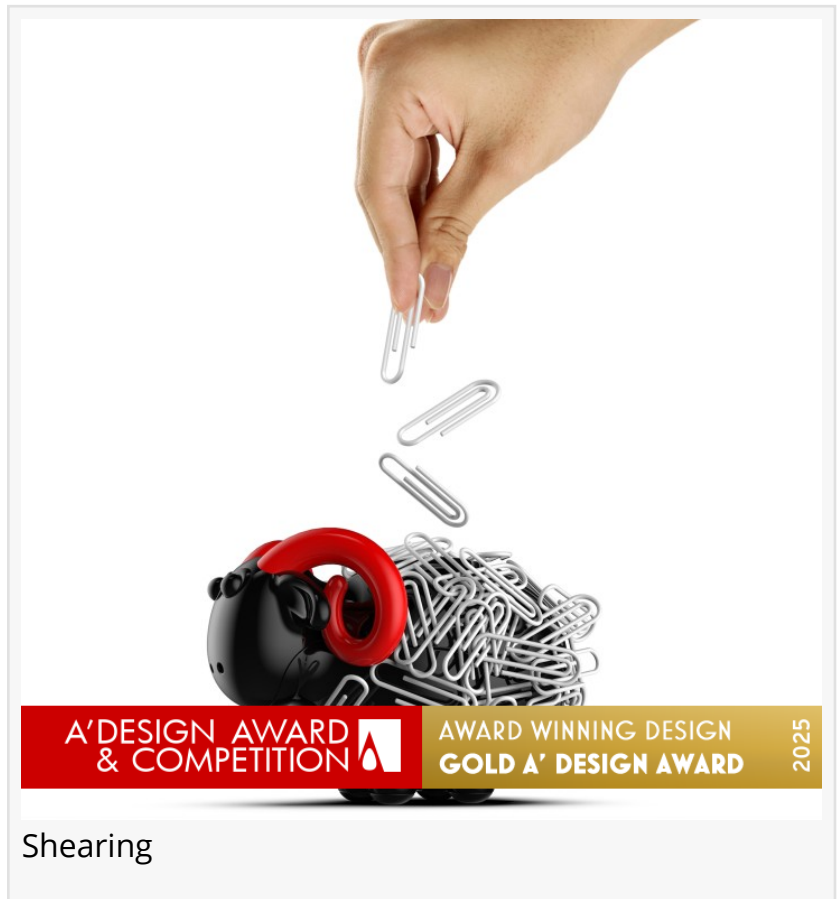

*Innovative Magnetic Paper Organizer
Stationery Recognized for Excellence in Art Supply Design*

COMO, CO, ITALY, June 25, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The A' Design Award, a highly respected and well-recognized award in the field of art supplies design, has announced Shearing by Xin Se as the winner of the Golden A' Design Award in the Art and Stationery Supplies Design category. This prestigious recognition highlights the exceptional design and innovation of Shearing, a magnetic paper organizer stationery that stands out in the competitive art supplies industry.

Shearing's unique design, which draws inspiration from the adorable image of a sheep, offers a fresh perspective on everyday office supplies. By creating a visual effect where paper clips resemble the sheep's wool, this innovative product not only fulfills its functional purpose but also adds a delightful and whimsical element to the task of organizing. This alignment with current trends in the art supplies industry, which prioritize both functionality and emotional engagement, makes Shearing a highly relevant and valuable addition to the market.

What sets Shearing apart is its ingenious integration of the concept of shearing wool with the functionality of a paper clip. The design encourages users to interact with the product in a playful manner, simulating the act of shearing the sheep when using the paper clips. This unique feature, combined with its charming aesthetics and practical utility, creates a memorable and emotionally engaging user experience that goes beyond the typical expectations for office supplies.

The recognition bestowed upon Shearing by the A' Art and Stationery Supplies Design Award serves as a testament to Xin Se's commitment to innovation and excellence in design. This achievement is expected to inspire the brand to continue pushing the boundaries of creativity and functionality in future projects, setting new standards for the art supplies industry. The award also motivates the Xin Se team to further explore the potential of infusing everyday items with emotional resonance and warmth, enhancing the daily lives of users through thoughtful design.

Shearing was designed by Xin Se, an independent designer with 23 years of experience in product design across various industries, including IT, household products, medical equipment, graphic design, and packaging. Xin Se's works have won numerous international awards, showcasing their expertise and dedication to creating products that become beautiful encounters, happy meetings, and warm companions in people's lives.
