According to the Business Research Company's latest report, the children and young adult books market size has been consistently growing in recent years due to factors such as an increase in the young adult population, a surge in early childhood reading, and the growth of book charities and government initiatives. Increased disposable income among consumers has played a significant role in this market's expansion as it boosts consumers' purchasing power and increases their probability of spending on leisure activities, such as reading books. Projections for the next few years suggest consistent, albeit marginal, growth in the market.

The market size is predicted to grow from $12.19 billion in 2024 to $13.36 billion in 2029, reflecting a compound annual growth rate CAGR of 1.7%. This projected growth in the forecast period is anticipated to rise due to factors such as the prevalence of eBooks and audiobooks, an increasing penetration of digital technology, and a growing preference for independent bookstores. Future trends in the market are expected to include personalized storybooks, integration of popular video games into books, and offering books under a subscription model.
