

LUX Infusion Expands Hours & Resources to Better Serve Seasonal Travelers & Year-Round Patients

*Longer Hours & New Guide Support
Access to IV Therapy That Fits Patients' Busy Lives*

LUX Infusion

ANCHORAGE, AK, UNITED STATES, June 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As demand for outpatient infusion grows in The Last Frontier, LUX Infusion is updating its clinic hours and patient resources to meet the infusion care needs of Alaska residents and out-of-state visitors.

At LUX Infusion, every shift we make is rooted in one goal: growing with purpose and showing up for the people who count on us."

Lisa Bruce

Beginning in August, expanded hours at the LUX Anchorage and Palmer clinics will offer greater flexibility and improved access to specialty treatments for a wider range of patients.

MORE AVAILABILITY, MORE FLEXIBILITY

On August 1, 2025, LUX Infusion in Anchorage and Palmer will be open five days a week to expand appointment availability, continue supporting our local patients, and accommodate more summer travelers in the area. This includes one Saturday a month.

This change has created several additional weekday appointment blocks while opening up weekend slots, with built-in flexibility to handle varying treatment schedules, travel timelines, and provider referrals. The goal is to make it easier for both local and visiting patients to stay on track with their care.

LUX's expanded hours are expected to alleviate scheduling bottlenecks and improve continuity of care for those managing chronic or complex medical conditions while living in or visiting Alaska.

WELCOMING SUMMER TRAVELERS FOR INFUSION THERAPY

Summer tends to bring more travelers to Alaska, and LUX Infusion is ready to welcome those visitors seeking IV therapy during their travels. Whether work, family, adventure, or anything else brings IV therapy patients to Alaska, LUX is well-equipped to meet their infusion needs, with extended hours in Anchorage and Palmer, as well as:

- >> 3 conveniently located outpatient infusion clinics (Fairbanks, AK, is home to the third LUX clinic).

- >> A wide range of FDA-approved medications available for specialty infusion

- >> Experienced, compassionate infusion nurses and trusted patient navigators

- >> Private, spa-like suites, designed for optimal comfort

- >> Special luxury touches, like paraffin hand wax treatments, under-eye masks, heated blankets, aromatherapy, calming music, and more

With a strong focus on patient coordination, LUX routinely works with out-of-state providers to ensure proper documentation, referrals, and continuity of care for visiting patients.

NEW TRAVEL RESOURCE FOR INFUSION PATIENTS

As part of its ongoing commitment to high-quality, patient-centered care, LUX Infusion has released a new online resource for travelers titled, How to Get Medical Infusions While Traveling. The guide:

LUX Infusion Anchorage Clinic & Team

LUX Infusion Palmer Welcomes Summer Travelers

- >> Answers common questions about getting medical infusions while traveling to another city or state
- >> Shares tips on how to find reliable infusion clinics away from home and what to do before traveling
- >> Provides a checklist for travelers who need medical infusions, so they don't overlook any key steps
- >> Highlights where travelers in Alaska can find support for their medical infusion needs.

This resource is just one step in LUX Infusion's broader effort to empower patients with clear, practical information and make infusion care more accessible, wherever life takes them.
