The two-day event featured more than 30 insightful sessions led by over 100 distinguished speakers from across the legal spectrum. Attendees explored critical topics shaping the future of the legal industry, including artificial intelligence in legal practice, data privacy, cybersecurity, ESG regulations, and dispute resolution in a globalized marketplace. Highlights included panel discussions such as "The AI-Driven Legal Revolution," moderated by Paola De La Torre, and "Addressing Global Anti-Bribery and Corruption Laws," led by Anik A. Shah. Case studies like "Taming Your Lawyer Instincts to Deliver Business Value" by Gabriela Badi, and roundtable discussions such as "The Future of In-House Counsel" with Michael DeSimone offered attendees practical insights.

Notable speakers included Nishat Ruiter, Steve Rosenboro, Ishak Akyuz, Catherine Quinlan, Christopher Bowen, Yash Singal, Jesse Melman, Monique Ferraro, Madeline Kessler, Jocelyn Gabrynowicz Hill, and many others — each bringing unique perspectives and deep expertise to the discussions.

A vibrant exhibition ran concurrently, showcasing cutting-edge advancements from exhibitors. Legal professionals engaged directly with innovative legal tech solutions and service providers, gaining hands-on experience with tools that are transforming the industry. The event was supported by key sponsors, including MRS Business Professional as the Presenting Sponsor, Lex Corp and Case Docker as Diamond Sponsors, and Serving Immigrants as the Gold Sponsor. Their contributions were pivotal to the event's success.

LexTalk World continued its tradition of recognizing excellence through the prestigious "Legal Honor Global Awards", presented on Day 2, followed by a cocktail reception. The awards celebrated outstanding achievements within the legal sector, honoring professionals who have made significant contributions to the field.

Day 1 featured dynamic sessions across three halls. Hall A hosted discussions on transforming the legal profession and crisis management, while Hall B focused on AI-driven legal tech and its implementation in small to medium-sized practices. Hall C explored intellectual property potential and smart compliance strategies. On Day 2, sessions delved into ESG regulations, data privacy, cybersecurity compliance, and the role of lawyers in mergers and acquisitions. Notable presentations included "Harmonizing IP Laws and Cultural Differences" by Patricia Renjifo and a LexTalk Speech by Monica Romelina Sijabat on modern legal leadership.

Attending LexTalk for the first time has been a truly remarkable experience. The panel discussions were incredibly engaging, and I thoroughly enjoyed my time here," said María Teresa Salazar, AML Program Manager, Tigo Millicom. "The panelists were highly insightful and experts in their respective fields. I appreciated the depth of knowledge shared—it was a fantastic experience," said Luis Felipe Martinez Parente de la Mora

The event underscored LexTalk World's commitment to driving progress within the global legal community. By uniting thought leaders and showcasing transformative technologies, the conference set a new benchmark for legal excellence.
