As we continue to grow beyond seating, this new coffee table collection reflects Acanva’s vision of creating cohesive, modern living environments”

Grace Lin

Each piece in the collection reflects Acanva’s design philosophy: refined forms, clean lines, and a timeless color palette that fits effortlessly into contemporary interiors. From bold geometric silhouettes to soft rounded edges, the new coffee tables are designed to serve as both functional surfaces and artistic focal points.

“With this collection, we set out to create coffee tables that feel like natural extensions of our sofas—grounded in modern design but full of personality,” said Harding, Lead Designer at Acanva. “We were inspired by architectural shapes, organic textures, and the way furniture can quietly elevate a room.”

Available now on Acanva.com, the collection includes a variety of shapes, heights, and finishes, making it easy for customers to find the perfect match for their living spaces. Several pieces are offered in multiple colorways, including warm woods, neutral stones, and matte blacks and whites.

With the launch of this new collection, Acanva continues its mission to make elevated, design-forward furniture more accessible to modern homeowners and design lovers.
