Benson Jewish Ministries Foundation Appoints Linton Riddick as Chief Financial Officer

NEW YORK , NY, UNITED STATES, June 27, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ --

The Benson Jewish Ministries Foundation proudly announces the appointment of Linton Riddick as Chief Financial Officer (CFO). A highly decorated United States Air Force veteran, Mr. Riddick currently serves as a Department of Defense (DoD) specialist supporting national security within the Nuclear Command, Control, and Communications (NC3) division—one of the most mission-critical pillars of U.S. defense infrastructure. Mr. Riddick holds the rank of Master Sergeant (E-7) in the U.S. Air Force Reserve, where he provides leadership in aircraft propulsion systems and cyber defense operations. From 2008 to 2012, he supported both the KC-135 Stratotanker and the Airborne Warning and Control System (AWACS) programs, solidifying his technical and strategic credentials. He brings to the Foundation more than $40 million in acquisition leadership experience across propulsion and cybersecurity portfolios. His professional certifications include CompTIA Security+, CySA+, and Project Management Professional (PMP), underscoring a deep commitment to mission excellence. Mr. Riddick is a graduate of the Community College of the Air Force, with formal academic training in aerospace and cybersecurity. Linton Riddick's leadership reflects a unique fusion of national defense, renewable energy innovation, and educational equity—critical areas of focus for the Foundation as it advances its faith-based mission.
