

MexEdge Offers Secure Payment Alternative as US Sanctions Block InterCam, CIBanco, and Vector

US sanctions block transfers to key Mexican banks, leaving buyers scrambling. MexEdge offers a secure alternative for Mexico real estate payments.

PUERTO VALLARTA, JALISCO, MEXICO, June 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The United States Treasury Department has imposed new sanctions that block American financial institutions from sending money to three major Mexican banks: InterCam, CIBanco, and Vector Casa de Bolsa.

Accused of facilitating money laundering for drug cartels, these institutions are now effectively cut off from receiving funds via US banks, leaving many buyers in need of an alternative like MexEdge, which offers secure payment solutions for Mexican real estate transactions.

We know how stressful it is to have your closing at risk. MexEdge is ready to provide a secure, compliant alternative so buyers can complete property purchases in Mexico with confidence.”

George Reavis, Founder of MexEdge

For thousands of Americans and Canadians buying property in Mexico, this sudden action creates immediate uncertainty and risk. Many have relied on InterCam and CIBanco to handle cross-border payments for real estate closings. With these banks now blocked, buyers face the threat of delayed or canceled transactions, lost deposits, and urgent confusion about how to safely transfer large sums to Mexico.

Beyond the immediate disruption, the sanctions highlight challenges that have always faced foreign buyers in Mexico. Concerns about how to move money securely, avoid delays, and reduce uncertainty have only grown with
