We set out to create a new website that is easy to navigate. To achieve this, we conducted UX research to better understand our customers' needs and ensure a more intuitive experience.”

Emma Phillips - Marketing Officer, Adept GRP Cabinets

With a clean, modern interface and simplified navigation, the updated website provides visitors with easier access to detailed information about their wide range of GRP (glass reinforced plastic) cabinets and enclosures. Whether you're a utility provider, contractor, or project manager, the site makes it easier than ever to find a solution that fits your needs.

In addition to enhanced product pages and visuals, the site includes a streamlined contact system, mobile responsiveness, and optimised content for better visibility in search engines—ensuring both new and returning visitors get the information they need quickly and efficiently.

As specialists in GRP (Glass Reinforced Plastic), Adept GRP is known for providing durable, lightweight, and weather-resistant solutions used across multiple industries including electrical, water, gas, and telecoms. Their cabinets and enclosures offer long-term protection for sensitive equipment and infrastructure, tailored to suit demanding environments.

The launch of the new website marks a key milestone in Adept GRP's growth and reinforces its position as a leader in the UK GRP market. Existing clients and new visitors alike are encouraged to explore the updated site to discover the full capabilities of the Adept GRP range.
