

The Peace Within the Frame: Top 60 Masters as a Global Message

The 2027 Top 60 Masters Awards will take place in Toronto—uniting sixty artists in a global celebration of peace, legacy, and creative diplomacy.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, July 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a world too often defined by conflict and division, sixty artists gather each year to speak in a different language: the language of art. The Top 60 Masters Awards, presented by ArtTour International Magazine, is more than a celebration of technical brilliance—it is a testament to the power of creativity as a force for peace.

Top 60 Masters 2025 award-winning artists gather in Ferrara, Italy, with Viviana Puella to celebrate a night of unity, legacy, and global artistic excellence.

And now, in breaking news just announced: the 2027 edition of the Top 60 Masters Awards will be hosted in Toronto, Canada, on May 22, 2027. The prestigious event, now in its second decade, continues to shine as a cultural summit where artistic mastery becomes a message of global unity.

Each selected artist joins a legacy that transcends the gallery walls. Over the years, the Top 60 Masters has brought together creators from over 50 nations—some even from countries in active conflict. It is not uncommon for two artists from opposite sides of a geopolitical divide to stand side-by-side, sharing stories, hope, and vision. It's a quiet act of diplomacy, a gesture of solidarity without words.

For Viviana Puella, founder of ArtTour International Magazine, this mission is deeply spiritual. "Art doesn't shout—it reveals," she says. "These artists aren't just showing work. They're building bridges."

The upcoming 2027 edition in Toronto adds a new chapter to this movement. As a city known for its cultural vibrancy and diversity, Toronto offers fertile ground for the artistic dialogue ArtTour International has been nurturing for years. It's more than a location—it's a message: unity thrives where creativity is honored.

"Toronto reflects the spirit of the Top 60 Masters," says Alan Grimandi, award-winning cinematographer and co-founder of ArtTour International. "It's inclusive, visionary, and alive with artistic innovation."

The Top 60 Masters Awards, often dubbed "The Oscars of the Visual Arts," is widely recognized as the crown jewel of ArtTour International's cultural programming. With each passing year, the selection becomes more refined, more meaningful. The artists chosen are not only masters of their craft, but also bearers of transformative messages.

The event is more than a ceremony. It includes interviews broadcast through Vivid Arts TV, and international editorial coverage. For the featured sixty, it is both a milestone and a mission.

Being named a Top 60 Master is an unparalleled honor. It signals entry into a creative family deeply committed to legacy, peace, and global visibility.

ArtTour International Magazine itself has evolved over more than a decade into a beacon of modern cultural consciousness. Its television network, Vivid Arts TV, now broadcasts to millions through Roku, Amazon Fire, Apple TV, Google Play, and a standalone app. From exhibitions to documentaries, from spiritual music to social impact coverage, the platform has grown into a sanctuary for visual and performing artists alike.

The Top 60 Masters remains at the center of it all—a living archive of hope, painted and sculpted by sixty visionary souls each year.

As Puello reflects: "When artists unite with intention, something sacred happens. They hold up a mirror not only to beauty, but to truth. And that kind of vision can't help but change the world."
