

TaxZerone Announces Filing Season for Form 941 – 2nd Quarter 2025

*Employers and Tax Professionals
Encouraged to File Before July 31 to Avoid Penalties*

SAN JOSE, CA, UNITED STATES, June 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The filing season for Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return, for the second quarter of 2025 is now officially open. Employers, tax professionals, and payroll providers are encouraged to begin the filing process promptly to ensure compliance with federal tax requirements and to avoid penalties for late submission.

About Form 941 and Its Importance

Form 941 is a key federal payroll tax form that U.S. employers must file each quarter. It is used to report:

- Wages paid to employees
- Federal income tax withheld
- Employer and employee shares of Social Security and Medicare taxes
- Any adjustments to employment taxes
- Eligible tax credits, such as those related to qualified small business research expenses (via Form 8974)

Accurate and timely filing of Form 941 is crucial not only for meeting legal obligations but also for maintaining proper payroll records. Mistakes or delays in filing can result in interest charges, late fees, and compliance issues that may affect future filings.

Filing Deadline for Q2 2025: July 31

The deadline to file Form 941 for the second quarter (April-June) of 2025 is July 31, 2025. Employers are strongly encouraged to file electronically to reduce errors, receive faster acknowledgments from the IRS.

Filing electronically also helps avoid common mistakes such as miscalculations, signature issues, and form rejections due to IRS business rule violations.
