& SVP – Americas, ProHance*

“HFMA 2025 provided an ideal platform to connect with decision-makers across the healthcare finance ecosystem,” said Khiv Singh, Senior VP, Growth & Country Head –

Americas, ProHance. “The conversations we had reaffirmed the increasing demand for data-driven RCM strategies that balance performance optimization with cost control.”

The ProHance booth drew strong engagement, led by its team of Khiv Singh, Scott Wilson, and Wes Gunn, who facilitated deep-dive discussions on workforce optimization, process visibility, and performance metrics. Their interactions underscored a growing industry focus on leveraging analytics to address the complexity of RCM and workforce management in healthcare.
