YVERDON-LES-BAINS, SWITZERLAND, July 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Balfour Capital Group, a global boutique investment firm, is pleased to announce the appointment of Zvikomborero Mutsindiri as an Investment Advisor. Based in Dubai,

Mr. Mutsindiri joins the firm as part of its broader strategic initiative to expand its footprint across the Middle East and Africa (MEA), with a focus on delivering technical excellence, personalized investment strategies, and sustainable portfolio solutions to institutional and private clients.

The best advice I can give you is to ask yourself what you want, then ask yourself what is true — and then ask yourself what should be done about it.”

Zvikomborero Mutsindiri brings over five years of cross-sector financial experience across banking, investment services, and fintech. His core competencies include financial engineering, portfolio optimization, credit and risk analysis, and client relationship management. Mr. Mutsindiri's appointment reinforces Balfour Capital Group's commitment to combining analytical depth with regional expertise to serve its globally diverse client base.

Prior to joining Balfour Capital Group, Mr. Mutsindiri served as Client Relationship Manager at Old Mutual – CABS, where he led corporate relationship strategies, performed credit evaluations, and oversaw a multi-sector client portfolio. His work was instrumental in driving customer satisfaction and asset growth. He also held prior roles at First Capital Bank in both Bulawayo and Harare, where he provided commercial banking advisory services across risk management, facility structuring, and securities evaluation.

Earlier in his career, Mr. Mutsindiri worked with Financial Securities Exchange (FINSEC) and Sattech Holdings, gaining broad exposure to operational finance, financial reporting, budgeting, and project-based capital deployment. These experiences provided a robust grounding in financial modeling, investment analysis, and technology-oriented process improvement.

Mr. Mutsindiri holds a B.Tech (Hons) in Financial Engineering from Harare Institute of Technology and is certified across several globally respected credentialing programs, including the Financial Planning & Wealth Management Professional (FPWMP™), Capital Markets & Securities Analyst (CMSA®), and the Corporate Finance Certificate from the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Zimbabwe (ICAZ). His technical skill set includes portfolio management, capital markets, credit risk, valuation, and structured product analysis.

“Zvikomborero brings a rare combination of financial rigor, client-first thinking, and regional insight to our advisory platform,” said Steve Alain Lawrence, Chief Investment Officer of Balfour Capital Group. “His experience across Africa’s banking and investment ecosystems, coupled with his technical credentials and new base in Dubai, position him perfectly to support our institutional expansion and deliver long-term value to clients across the MEA corridor.”

In his new role, Mr. Mutsindiri will support institutional and private clients with bespoke investment strategies, portfolio construction, and credit-linked solutions. He will also contribute to BCG’s thought leadership initiatives and product innovation at the intersection of finance and technology.
