

CambriLearn Launches US Curriculum, Becomes World's Most Comprehensive Online School

CambriLearn adds US Curriculum, becoming the only global online school offering five fully online curricula for Grades K-12.

SOUTH AFRICA, June 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CambriLearn, the globally recognised online

The US Curriculum launch is about more than adding a new offering, it's about unlocking opportunities” education platform trusted by families in over 100 countries, has announced the launch of its fully online US Curriculum for Grades K-12. This move cements CambriLearn's position as the most comprehensive online school globally, now offering five distinct curricula across multiple regions: British International, Pearson Edexcel, CAPS, KABV, and the US K-12 curriculum.

Ryan Swartzberg

At a time when educational flexibility and global mobility matter more than ever, CambriLearn's expanded curriculum offering gives families the freedom to choose the path that best suits their child's future, whether that's attending a university in the UK, pursuing an athletic scholarship in the US, or meeting national requirements in South Africa.

“The US Curriculum launch is about more than adding a new offering, it's about unlocking opportunities,” says Ryan Swartzberg, Co-Founder & CEO at CambriLearn. “We're helping students build future-ready, globally portable academic foundations, regardless of where they live or how they learn best.”

A First-of-Its-Kind Offering

CambriLearn is now the only global online school to provide the following curricula under one platform:

British International Curriculum

US Curriculum

South African CAPS (registered with SACAI)

KABV Curriculum (Grades 1-7)

Pearson Edexcel (International GCSE & A Levels)

Each curriculum is delivered 100% online, supported by expert teachers, interactive content and personalised academic support.

Designed for Modern Families

The US Curriculum, in particular, is ideal for:

Globally mobile families who need a widely accepted high school diploma

Student-athletes seeking NCAA eligibility for US college sports

Neurodiverse learners who benefit from personalised pacing and structure

Expat families seeking continuity in education across borders

Students who complete CambriLearn's US high school programme (Grades 9–12) graduate with a recognised US High School Diploma accepted by universities and colleges worldwide.

Trusted, Flexible, Future-Focused

CambriLearn has already helped thousands of students succeed in online schooling, helping students in over 100+ countries and strong word-of-mouth growth across markets. Its teaching approach is rooted in academic rigour, flexibility, and a commitment to helping each learner realise their potential.

"With the addition of the US Curriculum, we're not just offering more subjects, we're building a bridge to more futures," says Swartzberg.
