Tarzan Audiobooks

Each audiobook in the series features:

- The complete text from the Edgar Rice Burroughs Authorized Library edition
- Historical and literary insights from renowned Tarzan and ERB scholars
- Narration by acclaimed voice actor Ben Dooley, delivering a powerful and engaging performance
- Stunning cover art by legendary fantasy artist Joe Jusko, capturing the spirit of the jungle adventure
- A bonus PDF featuring the novel's frontispiece artwork by Joe Jusko and current offerings from ERB, Inc.

"It was Edgar Rice Burroughs who sparked my sense of wonder as a young reader, inspiring me to become a lifelong reader," said Stephen Smith, president of Oasis Family Media. "A half century later, I am so proud to have contributed to his legacy by being the first publisher to release the complete ERB Tarzan canon with the highest quality productions."

The range of Edgar Rice Burroughs' literary ape-man is much broader and farther reaching than seen in film and television. In Burroughs' original stories, Tarzan is highly intelligent, fluent in multiple languages, and a morally complex character who initially struggles with his dual heritage—civilized man and jungle-raised warrior. The literary tales explore themes of romantic adventure, nature vs. civilization, identity, and the ills of colonialism, while at the same time sending Tarzan on incredible journeys to fantastical realms, lost civilizations, dinosaur-filled valleys, and even the hollow world at the Earth's core.

"This is more than just a reading—it's a cinematic audio experience," said Jim Sullos, President of ERB, Inc. "We're thrilled that Oasis Audio is honoring Edgar Rice Burroughs' legacy by making these timeless stories accessible to a new generation of listeners."

The complete library of Tarzan audiobooks is available now from Audible or wherever audiobooks are sold.
