

Keyless2Go Accelerates to the Podium at Watkins Glen

WATKINS GLEN, NY, UNITED STATES, June 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In a high-speed debut at the IMSA Lamborghini Super Trofeo North America series, Long Island native Sean McAuliffe and co-driver Sebastian Carazo clinched a podium finish at the legendary Watkins Glen International — with Keyless2Go proudly featured as the primary sponsor on their No. 88 Lamborghini Huracán Super Trofeo Evo2.

The race marked a thrilling milestone for both drivers and the brand. Known for revolutionizing car key replacement with upfront pricing and a growing network of certified local locksmiths, Keyless2Go's sponsorship reflects its commitment to performance, innovation, and community-driven service — values that resonate both on and off the track.

"Having Keyless2Go on board was a huge boost for us," said McAuliffe. "Their support helped us focus on what mattered most — delivering results on the track. Sebastian and I worked hard to make this debut count, and we're thrilled to bring home a podium."

The duo's performance was marked by strategic driving, seamless pit coordination, and a shared determination to make an impact in their first outing together. Their success at Watkins Glen
