His discography includes twenty-two studio albums, seven compilation albums, seven No. 1 hits, and 38 singles, including timeless classics such as "It Turns Me Inside Out," "Ring On Her Finger Time on Her Hands," "She's Lyin'," "I Don't Mind the Thorns if You're the Rose," "Dixie Road," "Somebody's Gonna Love You," "Going Going Gone," and "You Got A Good Love Comin'."

His iconic hit "God Bless the U.S.A." remains a hallmark of patriotism, charting in the top five on the country singles charts three times (1991, 2001, and 2003) – the only song in any genre to do so. It also reached the Top 20 of the Billboard Hot 100 chart shortly after 9/11.

Greenwood continued his impressive career with significant milestones, including a Billboard No. 1 rock song (2024), the prestigious double-platinum certification for "God Bless the U.S.A.," and a recognition of his enduring impact through an "All-Star Salute to Lee Greenwood" in Huntsville, Alabama.
