Devonta Sullivan of Atlanta has been appointed as a National Ambassador for Veterans for America First (VFAF).

Devonta "Sully" Sullivan is a Former Police Officer, Former Atlanta Mayoral Candidate and Georgia VFAF Veterans for America First Vet Force Leader.

Currently the VFAF Vet Force Georgia team is rebuilding a shelter affiliated with Park Ave Baptist Church Through the VFAF Vet Force program, which mobilizes veterans, ex-law enforcement officers, and community members for hands-on service. Sullivan has assembled a coalition of volunteers dedicated to transforming shelter into a safe haven. This grassroots effort has attracted local businesses, veterans, and Atlanta residents—united by the belief that every person deserves a roof over their head and a chance to rebuild.

Building on his successful leadership in Georgia through the VFAF Vet Force program, Sullivan will now help expand that success nationwide. He will also be launching a podcast to further amplify the VFAF mission and engage with veterans, first responders, and citizens across the country who volunteer at Veterans for America First
