

WCP Acts as Exclusive Financial Advisor to GoSolve on their Acquisition by Ciklum

PALO ALTO, CA, UNITED STATES, July 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Woodside Capital Partners (WCP) acted as exclusive financial advisor to GoSolve Group (GoSolve), a cloud-native software development company specializing in Go programming language, cloud modernization, high performance computing and DevOps, on their acquisition by Ciklum.

Ciklum has a global workforce of more than 4,000 people, with deep skills across engineering, design, product and consultancy. Ciklum creates digital products and exceptional customer experiences for more than 250 global enterprises and new digital disruptors and has built a strong track record in next-generation product engineering and cutting-edge artificial intelligence.

GoSolve is headquartered in San Francisco and has delivery centers in Poland and India. With a global headcount of more than 150, GoSolve covers a complete range of Go-based development functionalities, including engineering, QA, product development, management and DevOps. GoSolve's core client base covers healthcare and retail: two key verticals in which Ciklum has deep experience and expertise.

"It was a great pleasure to help GoSolve, a bootstrapped company engaged in leading-edge cloud software development, become part of a leading global software development platform at Ciklum, which is backed by Recognize Partners," said Mukesh Ahuja, Managing Director at Woodside Capital Partners. "We are absolutely thrilled to have been GoSolve's financial advisor in this transaction."

"We're delighted to be joining forces with Ciklum's global team, so that we can extend all the potential and flexibility of a forward-looking language like Go to enterprises and ambitious digital startups," said Marcin Wudarczyk, CEO of GoSolve. "With Ciklum and GoSolve operating in US, Europe and India, this transaction had significant complexities. I'm grateful to the WCP team for providing exceptional guidance and support throughout the process."
