

CRR Hospitality to Manage the All-New Rock Springs RV Resort in Black Canyon City, Arizona

BLACK CANYON CITY, AZ, UNITED STATES, July 1, 2025 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- CRR Hospitality is proud to announce it has been selected to manage the all-new Rock Springs RV Resort, a premier RV and glamping destination set amid the scenic desert foothills of Black Canyon City. Conveniently located along Interstate 17 and next to the beloved historic Rock Springs Café, the resort is scheduled to begin welcoming long-term guests in October 2025, with all resort amenities launching in December 2025.

Developed by RSRV Development Partners, Rock Springs RV Resort will feature 123 spacious RV sites and 15 upscale glamping accommodations, thoughtfully integrated into the rugged natural landscape. Designed to serve both long-term guests and short-term outdoor enthusiasts, the resort offers a unique blend of modern amenities and immersive access to Arizona's great outdoors. Located along the newly improved Interstate 17 corridor, the resort also provides direct access to many top Arizona destinations like Prescott, Sedona, Flagstaff, Grand Canyon, Lake Pleasant, and the City of Phoenix

Off-road adventure through the rugged canyons

Rock Springs RV Resort is uniquely positioned as a gateway to world-class outdoor adventure, offering direct access to some of Arizona's most popular ATV and off-road trails. Guests will enjoy exploring miles of rugged terrain, winding through the Bradshaw Mountains, with opportunities for hiking, backpacking, mountain biking, trail riding, and immersive desert exploration- right outside their door.

"We're thrilled to partner with CRR Hospitality to bring Rock Springs RV Resort to life," said Brock Danielson, Managing Partner of RSRV Development Partners. "Their proven expertise in resort operations and delivering memorable guest experiences makes them the ideal partner for this property, which we believe will become a cornerstone destination for travelers exploring central Arizona."

Mike Harrison, Chief Operating Officer at CRR Hospitality, shared his enthusiasm:

"Rock Springs RV Resort is a perfect addition to our growing portfolio of premium outdoor hospitality destinations. With its incredible location, thoughtful design, and connection to the history and charm of Black Canyon City, we're excited to deliver a memorable guest experience that blends comfort, community, and adventure. For those seeking the ultimate in desert recreation, there's no better place to be."

The resort's proximity to Rock Springs Café, famous for its century-old history and award-winning pies, adds a unique flavor to the guest experience—giving travelers a flavorful glimpse into Arizona's rich heritage – just steps away."

Rock Springs RV Resort promises to be a destination where comfort, community, and adventure come together in one of Arizona's most scenic regions.
