The Crab Island Journeys team invites guests to join them aboard one of their tiki boats on July 4th for an unforgettable night on the water. The cruise will start at 8 PM and last until the fireworks at Destin Harbor are complete. Space is limited, so the team encourages any interested parties to make reservations early to enjoy Independence Day with an ocean breeze and a perfect view of the fireworks show.

"We're trying something new with this first-ever night cruise for the 4th!" shared Robert Slye, Owner of Crab Island Journeys. "We're excited to offer this experience and look forward to spending the evening celebrating with our guests."

With spacious tiki-themed cruises that can accommodate up to 30 passengers, Crab Island Journeys is a go-to for private cruises to Crab Island. The team provides a unique way to experience the beautiful Emerald Coast. Each cruise is made to be customizable for all occasions, like bachelorette parties, corporate team buildings, or family get-togethers.

Crab Island Journeys stocks each party boat with an ice-filled cooler that guests are encouraged to fill with their favorite beverages and snacks, and each cruise is equipped with a sound system, comfortable seating, and an expert captain, so each guest can fully enjoy themselves while on the water.
